

TOP 5 MISTAKES TO AVOID WITH YOUR WILL

IT CAN BE TRICKY GETTING YOUR AFFAIRS IN ORDER FOR WHEN YOU'RE NO LONGER AROUND. BELOW IS A LIST OF MISTAKES TO BE AVOIDED.

Having a verbal Will between you and a loved one. Your Will must be in written format.

Your Will should be witnessed by individuals who are not beneficiaries.

Not keeping your Will in a safe place. Your Will should be in a safe or vault.

Keeping the location of your Will a secret. Your executor(s) should know of its whereabouts.

Not keeping your Will up to date. An out of date Will could be leaving off valuable assets.
